

THE RADICAL HOMOSEXUAL AGENDA

Pastor Gene Keith

Gainesville, Florida

In 1972, the Gay Liberation Front met in Chicago and adopted an official four-point platform.¹ Their platform included:

1. A campaign to repeal all laws prohibiting sexual acts between consenting persons.
2. A campaign to repeal all laws governing the age of consent for sexual acts.
3. A campaign for the creation of sex education courses to be taught by homosexuals, parenting homosexuality as a valid, healthy, life-style.
4. A campaign to persuade elected officials to adopt legislation prohibiting discrimination against homosexuals in employment, housing, and public accommodations.

HOW SUCCESSFUL HAVE THEY BEEN?

Boy Scouts

Gay marriage is good but the Boy Scouts are bad!! Many large corporations and organizations such as United Way have cut off funding for the Scouts because they refuse to allow Homosexuals to serve as Scoutmasters.

Marriage Amendment

The former President of the United States favored a Constitutional Amendment that declares that marriage is a union between one man and one woman. According to one CNN poll, 59% of the American people disagree with him!! What has happened to the American mind?

Homosexual Bishop

The Episcopalians have made a known homosexual a Bishop. One man, testifying in support of the move said: "Homosexuality is not a sin - it is a gift from God!" Don't you wonder what Bible he's been reading?

Public Funds For Sex Changes

The city of San Francisco is said to be providing funds for city employees to have sex change operations. Unofficial reports indicate that such surgery will cost in the neighborhood of $90,000 each.

Pedophile Priests

The Roman Catholic Church has scores of homosexual priests who are known pedophiles. Hundreds of innocent children have been molested by these men.

¹ Daniels, E.J. Wake Up or Blow Up! Christ For The World, Inc. (Orlando: 1984. Page 83.

United States Supreme Court

In perhaps the most blatant example of raw judicial activism in history, the U.S. Supreme Court struck down the Texas Homosexual Conduct law, which criminalized certain sexual actions by consenting homosexual couples. The decision was 6-3 with Justices Kennedy and O'Conner writing concurring opinions.

Justice Anthony Scalia opposed the move, writing that the anti-sodomy law was designed to protect society from destructive sexual behavior.

Teacher Promotes Perversion

In the "public" school² the students are being influenced by homosexual propaganda. We will cite one example:

"In February 1997, parents of Northboro, Massachusetts demanded that Douglas Matthews, a teacher, be fired. Matthews, a history teacher, gave his students a list of sixteen questions about sexuality and homosexual experiences. The newspaper printed some of the questions.³

1. What do you think caused your heterosexuality?
2. Is it possible that your heterosexuality is just a phase which you might outgrow?
3. If you've never slept with a person of the same sex and enjoyed it, is it possible that all you need is a good gay lover?
4. Why do you as a heterosexual feel compelled to seduce others to your lifestyle?
5. Would you want your children to be heterosexual knowing the problems they would Actually there are is no such thing as a "public school." They are secular, government schools, totally committed to humanism and totally anti-Christian face, such as unwanted pregnancy, sexually transmitted disease, domestic violence, etc.?

6. Considering the menace of over-population, how would the human race survive if everyone were a heterosexual like you?
7. How can you become a whole person if you limit yourself to compulsive, exclusive heterosexuality? Shouldn't you at least try to develop your natural, healthy, homosexual potential?

WAKE UP AMERICA!

It's time for Americans to wake up and come to grips with one of the most serious problems facing America today. The focus of this report will be three-fold:

1. To remind you of the militant homosexual agenda.
2. To provide you with a list of the many references to this behavior in the Bible.
3. To suggest ways the decent people of this country can protect their lives and families from this sickening agenda.

CORRECT TERMINOLOGY

A few words of clarification are in order at this point. The correct (legal and biblical) term for what is commonly called "homosexuality" is "Sodomy." Words like "Gay," "Queer," or "Homosexual" are all euphemisms. The correct word is "Sodomy."

There are no "anti-Gay" or "anti-Homosexual" laws on any book anywhere in the nation that this writer is aware of. There are "anti-sodomy" laws. Therefore, when discussing this subject it is always better to use correct terminology.

Webster's Dictionary

According to the New Expanded Webster's Dictionary (1988), the word "sodomy" means: "Carnal copulation against nature". In the 1974 edition of Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary, we read:

Sodom

"A city in ancient Palestine destroyed by God for its wickedness". The dictionary refers the reader to Genesis 18:20-21 and (Genesis 19: 14-28).

Sodomy

- "The homosexual proclivities of the men of the city (Genesis 19:1-11).
- "Copulation with a member of the same sex or with an animal."
- "Unnatural copulation with a member of the opposite sex."

Sodomite

One who practices sodomy."

RIGHT AND WRONG

Thanks to the media and the Humanists in our government schools and colleges, this present generation has lost its way. They no longer understand that some things are right and some things are wrong. They have been taught that morals are relative and that no beliefs, or values are superior to others. This is a lie! Some things are right and some things are wrong and Homosexuality is sexual perversion and that is wrong!

Bureau of Standards

There is a bureau in Washington D.C. known as the "Bureau of Standards." There, one may find a standard by which to judge all other "standards." There one can find a standard inch, a standard pound, a standard gallon, and etc.

Moral Absolutes

Likewise, there is a standard of truth morality which is necessary in a civilized, orderly society. That standard of truth is the Bible - God's inspired Word.

This standard of truth is not found in the local public library; This standard of truth and morality is not found in the class rooms of our public schools; This standard of truth is not found in the Library of Congress; Neither is this standard of truth found in the United States Supreme Court.

The standard of truth and morality for life on this planet is found in the Bible, the Word of God. And it is by this standard of truth God will judge the people and nations of this world. So, when one desires to know the truth about sexual perversion, they go to the pages of the Old and New Testaments.

WARNINGS ABOUT SEXUAL PERVERSION IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

1. Sodom & Gomorrah

The first reference in the Bible to homosexuality is the story of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah because of their sexual orientation. You can read the entire account of this in Genesis 19. The men of Sodom were so sexually disoriented, they reached the point where there was only one "straight" man in the entire city. That man's name was Lot. The men were so obsessed with "strange flesh" they even tried to rape two angels of God who appeared in Sodom disguised as men.⁴ The situation was so bad God destroyed the cities with fire and brimstone from heaven.⁵

Jesus took this literally and used the story in Luke 17:18-29 to illustrate conditions that would occur on the earth during the closing days of history.

2. Sex With Other Men Forbidden

In (Leviticus 18:21), God forbids sex with

⁴Genesis 19:4-13

⁵2 Peter 2:6-8 & Jude 7

members of the same sex. It is called an "abomination."

"Thou shalt not lie with man kind. as with womankind. It is an abomination."

3. Sex With Animals Forbidden

In (Leviticus 18:23), God forbids sex with beasts. "Neither shall thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith; neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto; it is an abomination."

4. Sexual Perversion Defiles The Person

In (Leviticus 18:24), God explains that sexual perversion defiles the person who commits the act. "Defile not yourself in any of these things."

5. Sexual Perversion Defiles The Land

In (Leviticus 18:25), God's Word says that sexual perversion defiles the very "land" they live in. "For in these things are the nations defiled which I cast out before you ."

6. Sexual Perversion Brings Divine Judgment.

In (Leviticus 18:27), God explained that homosexuality "defiled" the Canaanite nations and led to their extermination. "For all these abominations have the men of the land done, who were before you and the land is defiled."

Archeology has confirmed the moral degeneracy of the Canaanite civilization of that period.

7. Sexual Perversion Brought Death Penalty

In (Leviticus 20:13), when two men were caught committing homosexual acts - they were executed. "If a man lie with mankind he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death."

In (Leviticus 18:15), when a man was caught having sex with an animal, the man and the beast were executed. "And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: Ye shall slay the beast."

8. Male Prostitutes Called "Dogs"

In (Deuteronomy 23:17-18), God forbids any of His people being prostitutes or homosexuals. In fact, God does not even want their gifts or offerings brought into the house of God.

"Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore or the price of a dog, into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: For even both of these are an abomination unto the Lord thy God."

- Whore: a "whore," as you know, is a woman who gives men sex in exchanges for money.
- Dog: The "hire" of a dog is money earned from male prostitution.

An interesting reference to "dogs" is found in the last chapter of the Bible.

"Blessed are they who do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates of the city.

But outside are dogs (male prostitutes), and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie" (Rev. 22:14-15).

9. King Rehoboam Granted "Gay Rights"

In (1 Kings 14:24), King Rehoboam came to power after Solomon's death, and during his reign, he granted special rights to homosexuals. It wasn't long before the Israelites began to commit the very same sins (sexual perversion) which caused the Canaanites to be driven from the land.

10. King Asa Removed Sodomites

Following this, a better king came to power. Good King Asa cleaned up the mess Rehoboam had made. "And Asa did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father. And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols his father had made." (1 Kings 15:11-12)

11. King Josiah Removed "Gay" Clubs (bath houses?)

During the reign of King Josiah, the Sodomites had to be removed again. When King Josiah began his reform, the Sodomites had gained so public support they were operating next door to the very house of God. This would be like a "Melody Club" operating next door to a Baptist Church. "And he (Josiah) broke down the houses of the sodomites that were by the house of the Lord."

SEXUAL PERVERSION IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

The New Testament abounds with references to sexual disorientation.

1. Nobody is Born "Gay"

Nobody has ever been born a lesbian or a homosexual. Sodomy is an act, a behavior, not a person's nature. In (Romans 1:14-28, 32) God reveals the true reason people become sexually disoriented. Follow the steps downward, beginning with the rejection of God's Revealed word.

- People first reject the revelation of God.
- When people reject God - God rejects them.
- When God rejects an individual, God "puts out their moral lights." They can no longer discern right and wrong.

- Finally, God gives up on them. He washes His hands of them.
- When God gives up on a person, He turns them over to a life of sin to which there is no limit or restraint. Read this chapter and weep! We see evidence of this all around us.

2. Sexual Perversion is Unclean (Romans 1:24a) "Wherefore God gave them up to uncleanness ."

3. Sexual Perversion "Dishonors" One's Body (Romans 1:24). "through the lusts of their own heart, to dishonor their bodies between themselves"

4. Homosexual "Affection" is called "Vile Affection." (Romans 1:26a) "For this cause God gave them up to vile affections"

5. Sexual Perversion is "Against Nature" (Rom. 1:26b) "For women did exchange the natural use for that which is against nature."

6. Sexual Perversion is said to be "Indecent."

In the very next verse (Rom. 1:27) we learn that homosexual acts are "unseemly." The word "unseemly" means "indecent" or "shameful."

Homosexual "love" is the very opposite of "true love." True love never produces indecent or shameful acts. See (1 Cor 13:5)

7. Sexual Perversion Affects One's Body.

It is impossible to engage in homosexual acts and not suffer the consequences. According to (Romans 1:27), we learn that one "penalty" for choosing to commit homosexual acts takes place inside of the person's body. They receive "in themselves" the penalty is "fitting" (meaning it is deserved).

8. Sexual Perversion Affects One's Mind.

There are also serious mental and emotional consequences. Consider the number of suicides among people who have chosen this lifestyle.

When a person willfully rejects divine revelation, something happens to their mind. In (Romans 1:28) this mental condition is called a "reprobate mind." A "reprobate mind" means an unqualified mind.

"Secular Education" is no remedy for a reprobate mind. A person whose mind has become "reprobate" is no longer qualified to make moral decisions even though that person may have multiple degrees.

9. Sexual Perversion "Cauterizes" One's Conscience (Ephesians 4:19).

In (Ephesians 4:19), the Bible speaks of people who are "past feeling." God normally works through a person's conscience to restrain sin in their life. But a person can reject this light and rebel against God so long, he/she will reach a point where his/her conscience no longer works. People in this "state" can commit all sorts of horrible sins and no longer even feel bad about it.

In (1 Timothy 4:2), the Bible speaks of people whose conscience has been "seared with a hot iron". It is as if their conscience has been cauterized.

10. Sexual Perversion Leads to Premature Death.

Sodomites have more than their share of sexually transmitted diseases, hepatitis, parasites, as well as AIDs. The average Sodomite will not live past age forty (40). If you question this, just read the obituaries in the Gay magazines and see for yourself.

11. Sexual Perversion Will Ban One From Heaven.

In (1 Corinthians 6:9), there is a list of sins that will keep a person out of the Kingdom of God. Sexual perversion is one of those sins. It is listed along with other sins like murder, extortion, and stealing, and etc.

"Don't you know that those who do wrong will have no share in the Kingdom of God. Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, who are idol worshipers, adulterers, male prostitutes, homosexuals, thieves, greedy people, drunkards, abusers, and swindlers - - none of these will have a share in the kingdom."

SEXUAL PERVERSION IS A TERMINAL SIN ⁶

1. Sexual Perversion Destroyed Egypt

Homosexuality contributed to the fall of ancient Egypt. Several Pharaohs openly boasted that it was their sexual preference. They sent emissaries through the country-side to find desirable boys to satisfy their lusts.

2. Sexual Perversion Destroyed Greece

Alexander the Great conquered the then-known world. What the average history books fail to reveal is that Alexander the Great became a homosexual and his army began to disintegrate. It became infested with homosexual intrigue, jealousy, and bickering. His soldiers began to take their homosexual lovers on their campaigns. That infestation became a deadly moral disease.

⁶Daniels, E. J. America! Wake up or Blow up! p. 85. Much of Dr. Daniels information was based on a book by Dr. Tim LaHaye, What everyone should know about Homosexuality, (Wheaton, IL, Tyndale House, 1978, page 181)

3. Sexual Perversion Destroyed Rome

The Roman legions subdued nation after nation. The history books concealed the fact that homosexuality ran wild in the empire. Fourteen of the last nineteen Caesars were avowed homosexuals.

Pompeii, the famous Roman city, was known as a hotbed of homosexual activity. The proof of this can be seen today in the ruins of Pompeii, which was destroyed by the eruption of a volcano.

Gibbons and Toynbee wrote history more honestly than most historians. They both mention that Rome fell because high taxes, deficit spending, public works, welfare abuse, an inordinate appetite for pleasure. But Gibbon also concludes that among other things, it was sexual promiscuity and homosexuality.

4. Sexual Perversion in Israel

This writer discovered an interesting point about the fall of the nation of Israel. In an intriguing and often overlooked passage in Isaiah's prophecy (Isa 3:9), the prophet cried out: "Declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not!"

Another translation puts it this way: "They boast that their sin is equal to Sodom; they are not even ashamed."

The sin of Sodom was sexual perversion. In (Isa 3:12), we read: "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them."

The phrase "women rule over them" needs an explanation. What does it mean? Dr. Tim LaHaye says, "The Hebrew word for WOMEN, who ruled Israel at that time, is most interesting. Some lexicons translate it woman-like men or effeminate, while others render it men who act like women.

In other words, Israel's government had been invaded by homosexuals, thus invoking the judgement of God."

SUMMARY

1. Sexual perversion is a serious sin.
2. Sexual perversion brought destruction upon an entire city (Genesis 19) (2 Peter 2:2-4)
3. Sexual perversion caused an entire nation to be driven from their homes and exterminated (Leviticus 18).
4. Sexual perversion brings physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual consequences. (Read Romans 1:18-32).
5. Sodomites will be excluded from the Holy City (Rev. 22:15).
6. God accepts no excuses. No Sodomite is "innocent."

Most Sodomites have heard what the Bible says and have willfully rejected it. But the fact that they have been told the truth about this sin constitutes a ground of responsibility before God. There is no excuse!!

THE BATTLE FOR THE SOUL OF AMERICA

We are in a battle for the soul of America. This is a battle between right and wrong. This is a battle between light and darkness. There is no middle ground. You cannot close your eyes and hope it will go away. "They" are winning the battle and "we" are rapidly losing our rights.

1. Australia just banned a video which documents the "Gay Agenda."

2. In Sweden, there is now a four year prison sentence imposed on anyone convicted of criticizing homosexuality.

3. Children in our public schools are being subjected to homosexual propaganda beginning in the first grade.

WHAT CAN A CHRISTIAN DO?

What can a Christian do? Here are a few suggestions:

1. Things will get worse - not better.

Both Matthew and Luke record the words of Jesus concerning conditions in the last days.

Matthew (24) predicts that the last days on earth will be like it was in Noah's day, just before the flood.

Luke mentions Noah and the flood too, but he adds something else. Luke also mentions the days of Lot. Let me read it to you (Luke 17:28-30).

28. Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29. But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

What was Jesus talking about when He spoke of the days of Lot? The entire city of Sodom was run by homosexuals. They lusted after "strange flesh."

(Jude 1:7)

"Even as ("Even as" means "just like) Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."

Tried to Rape Angels

The men of Sodom tried to rape the angels of God who were staying in Lot's home. They were so filled with lust they rejected the appeal of Lot and as he tried to talk them out of raping the angels. The men nearly broke the door down trying to rape the angels of God (Gen 19:9).

(Gen 19:9)

"And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

(Gen 19:10)

But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

2. We cannot save the city but our presence (Christians) in the city buys time.

Gainesville is living on borrowed time. I can remember when it was against the law to buy or sell beer, wine, or whiskey in Alachua County. Now, downtown is filled with clubs where people dance, drink, and live in sin. The sad part is that some of our church members, who profess to be Christians are right in the middle of it. Are they really saved? I have serious doubts.

3. We cannot save the city, but we can save people out of the city.

Do you remember what the angels told Lot as they were trying to drag him out of the city of Sodom?

(Gen 19:12)

And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

(Gen 19:13)

For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

(Gen 19:14)

And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

(Gen 19:15)

And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

(Gen 19:16)

And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

1. First priority: Save our families from this wickedness.
2. Second: Try to influence our circle of friends.
3. Third: Try to influence the people we work with.
4. Last: Try to influence those God puts in our paths each day.

4. Fast and Pray Until Sundown Next Tuesday

Tuesday, residents of Gainesville will vote Yes or No on Amendment 1. Many of us cannot vote on Tuesday but we can pray for God to move on the hearts of those who can vote and do away with the embarrassing Transgender Ordinance the City Commissioners forced on us recently.

May God Bless you!

ARTICLE BY ED BRADY

Gainesville Sun
Friday, March 20, 2009

Passing Amendment 1 will nullify the gender identity ordinance, which created a dangerous loophole allowing men to legally enter women's restrooms and other public facilities based on a self-defined "inner sense." This was the authoritative opinion of the City Attorney's Office.

It's not transgendered individuals about whom people are concerned. Recent instances within city limits show that criminal opportunists pay attention to and exploit poorly written laws.

Knowing they cannot win on public safety, Equality is Gainesville's Business (EqPAC), headed by Commissioner Craig Lowe, has smothered the community with disinformation, claiming the issue is discrimination.

The stigmatizing impact of being labeled a bigot, however unwarranted, has covered some community leaders who have decided to "go along to get along" rather than stand up to this anti-intellectual bullying.

If Amendment 1 passes, Florida's Civil Rights Act, which doesn't include sexual orientation and gender identity, will replace the city's civil rights code.

Gainesville's Equal Opportunity director has not recorded a single complaint of discrimination based on gender identity and only five "intakes," without prompting investigation, in three years based on sexual orientation.

The urban area around Gainesville - not a hotbed of oppression - is outside the city's protective ordinance. In other words, there's no there there.

The 10,000-plus citizens who signed the charter petition include more Democrats than Republicans, more women than men, and a greater representation of African Americans than in the general population. Together, they're the most inclusive cross-section of people ever to rally around a local political issue.

EqPAC calls them "ignorant" and "bigoted" and says CGPP is fear-mongering. Commissioner Lowe repeatedly denied that men would enter women's restrooms. Then it happened.

A police report was filed at the Home Depot because the at-large perpetrator used a camera. Other episodes, minus the voyeurism, have left managers and police in "uncharted territory." Men entering women's restrooms, CGPP's consistent claim, is an undeniable fact.

The real fear-monger is EqPAC. They say gays and transgendered persons face "intense discrimination" and claim veterans and even pregnant women are threatened here in "progressive" Gainesville.

This insults our intelligence and reveals the contempt they hold for regular citizens.

The Sun editorial mentions Florida Statute 381.0091 that addresses gender and public accommodations, but EqPAC wants "home rule" authority to trump state law. The gender identity ordinance creates ambiguity, inviting costly lawsuits or tragic events. Amendment 1 avoids both scenarios.

A Sun editorial last year ("The Wedge Issue," July 25, 2008) said "Commissioners would be well advised to go back and modify the ordinance themselves." But they didn't. The "middle ground" The Sun and others had hoped for was scuttled by an arrogant City Commission.

The editorial also said "the public reaction to the notion of gender-mixing in toilet facilities has been almost visceral; and understandably so."

The issue is public safety. Florida's Civil Rights Act and the U.S. Constitution are more than adequate to protect our citizens, even pregnant women, from discrimination by the imaginary troglodytes Commissioner Lowe sees all around him.

To nullify this reckless ordinance and protect women and children, vote "Yes" on Amendment
